We strive to always use organic ingredients and make everything in house. Our meats, produce, and fruits are either organic, natural, or naturally raised. Our salad dressings and muffins are made from scratch right here in our Pono Ranch kitchen. Fresh Ingredients and House Made is the deal here!

Our facility was constructed in part with material repurposed from the original structure including the bar, portions of the tables, and the fencing as well as materials gathered from salvage yards, the woods, and industry friends at large.

A full water filtration system, solar water heating, radiant floor heating are all an integral part of our sustainable vision for the Pono Ranch experience.
